

WHEREAS, It is the right of each individual to have the opportunity to attain a college education; and,

WHEREAS, The education systems of South Dakota and the students in those systems provide an investment in the growth of the State; and,

WHEREAS, It is the great potential of students to offer the raw material for the vision and hope in the future; and,

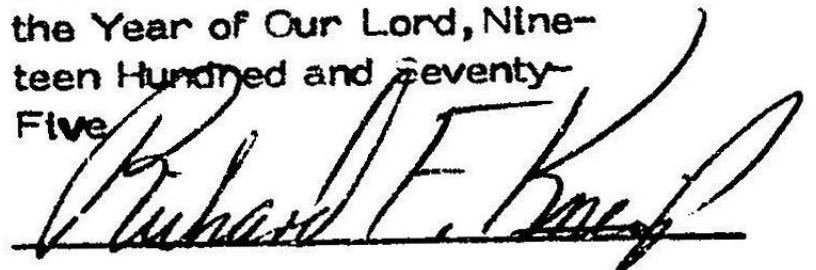

WHEREAS, The higher education system in South Dakota involves 15,000 students in seven State supported college and universities; and:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, February 11, 1975, as in South Dakota, and urge all of our citizens to join in this observance.

STUDENTS OF HIGHER EDUCATION DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 27th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
